Located just south of Hua Hin, a picturesque provincial town on the Gulf of Siam long favoured by the 'old families' of Thailand. Less than 200 kilometres from Bangkok and situated on a sandy tree-lined beach dominated by the rocky hills of Khao Takiab.

Only a short ride from town, Anantasila Villa offers both a peaceful retreat from the bustle of the city centre and convenient access to local shops, restaurants, and attractions. From the hotel, guests can walk a few hundred yards to small fishing village where a variety of fresh catch is available daily. For water sports enthusiasts, we can arrange for everything from kitesurfing and parasailing to jet-skiing and banana boating. Golfers can choose from over half a dozen world-class courses, all less than thirty minute's drive away.

As a family-run and family-orientated hotel, Anantasila looks to provide a warm, friendly, and intimate atmosphere. In order to best cater to the differing needs and preferences of our guests, we offer a wide range of accommodations (including poolside rooms, seafront apartments, bungalows, and pool villas). Our private beach and 25-metre pool both allow for a holiday spent under the sun, whilst a beach bar and sprawling terrace give access to beautiful, unobstructed views of the sea and Khao Takiab shoreline.

The hotel restaurant offers a taste of local and regional specialties, but also a wide choice of European dishes. Wine drinkers are invited to visit our wine pantry, which stocks a hand-picked selection of wines from both local vineyards and wineries across the globe. For those looking to enjoy a refreshing seaside cocktail or an evening aperitif, our bar serves a menu of classic and signature drinks. Guests visiting for the weekend will be able to enjoy live music on the terrace as well as our nightly live cooking buffet.
